Junior Great Books

Official Registration Form

This is it . . . the form you've all been waiting for . . . It's the Official Registration for the Flying Carpet Club, Central PTO's exciting lunch/recess literary program!

Flying Carpet Clubs meet once a week, for 10 weeks, engaging children through Junior Great Books. Our 2009 program runs from the week of January 12 through the week of March 16.

During the lunch/recess meetings, our volunteers lead discussion and activities for small groups of children (8 maximum per group) to promote understanding and sharing of ideas about classic tales from around the world.

By completing this Official Registration Form and returning it with the appropriate payment (see below),* your child is eligible to become a member of the Flying Carpet Club. Club Members receive their grade level appropriate Junior Great Books Anthology in their first weeks back from winter break, together with a welcome letter and reading itinerary. Club Members must read the stories specified on their itineraries at home (or have the stories read to them, if necessary) twice prior to their Flying Carpet Club meetings.

As space is limited, enrollment is only "guaranteed" to children who: (a) expressed interest in response to our survey (see reverse for list) and (b) return their completed registration materials with payment, unless otherwise indicated.* If you missed the survey, don't fret: Remaining slots will be filled in the order in which completed registration materials and payments are received – so act now! The Deadline is Monday, December 8.
