Discuss other submitted items/questions from Education Committee Member(s):

32. Review the elementary math curriculum. How well are we meeting the needs of our highest and lowest achieving students?
33. The ECE Program
34. Digest Data about the Flex Boundary Policy
35. What is the goal of the World Language study group?
 36. Administrative Team roles and responsibilities . . . in the context of the hiring process of a new principal. What is the district really in need of? . . .the district needs to consider what it currently has and how it wants to move forward.
 37. Evaluation of the 1-for-1 computer initiative. (What are you going to look for to know you are there?)

Discuss submitted items/questions from non-Education Committee BOE Member(s):

History (K-5):

38. Where does the study of history appear in the curriculum--only as an aspect of Social Studies?
39. Is this a systematic approach?
40. Is this a thorough approach?

History (6-8):

41. There are very full Social Studies courses on world history--how might these be restructured and spread out to deepen the student's historical consciousness and knowledge base? (Question is contingent on an item below.)

Literature (K-8):

42. Outside of Social Studies and Science, what non-fiction reading is required?
43. What is the ratio of required "classic" children's literature (western and non-western) to contemporary children's literature (e.g., Rebecca Caudill nominees)?

Hauser:

44. Survey parents for input concerning promise/reality question (first requires careful characterization of the promise we want to achieve, e.g., different ways to define "integrated curriculum," to which to we aspire?)
45. How do academic goals drive schedule?
46. What is the interface between elementary schools and Hauser, RB and Hauser regarding curriculum decisions?
47. Relationships among Core, Encore, Arts scheduling (before, during, after school hours).
48. Consider longer "block" scheduling to increase academic contact hours.
49. Require Reading as a year-long course 6-8.
50. Integrate Reading and Language Arts into one course and offer year round.
51. Offer Foreign Languages in 6th grade.
52. How to insure equality of academic experience across the 6th and 7th grade teams?
53. Does every parent meet with child's team of teachers at least once, ideally twice a year?
54. How well are teacher webpages updated and maintained?
55. How well are teachers updating PowerSchool?
56. Consider switch to EdLine (given most families will move to RB where EdLine is used and layout makes grade breakdown discussion easier, e.g., grouped by Homework, Tests, etc).
57. Parent/student experiences of PowerSchool?
58. No cut athletics?
59. Other issues that arise from faculty/principal/parent/student/input.

Foreign Language Study:

60. All research points to the earlier the exposure to a second language the better--how to introduce in the elementary schools; Kindergarten if possible; First Grade at latest. To do so, teachers will want something else "to give," what?
61. What is goal of a foreign language class in District 96: exposure? proficiency? cultural sensitivity? fluency?
62. What are different curricular patterns that align with different goals (e.g., frequency of class meeting, contact time, etc)?
63. Will this be voluntary or required?
64. If required, will there be exemptions granted for children who demonstrate fluency or proficiency in a second language (any language? standards for demonstration?)?
65. Exemptions for children enrolled outside of district in foreign language study (i.e., in language not offered in school)?
66. Which language(s)? . . . suggest the least popular option as an elective course at Middle School level: Latin/Greek for English/Romance Languages. Or go full out and offer Latin and/or Greek.

4. Adjournment.
