

Book Fair Diner...all you can read!

Have an appetite for reading?

A great Book Fair can never have too many cooks in the kitchen!

If you have not signed up as a volunteer yet, but would like to do so, there is still time. Simply contact Lisa Veon, who is making up the volunteer schedule for the Book Fair.

The Fair begins with set up on Monday, April 5th and ends with tear-down on the following Monday, April 12th. Choose the day and hour that you would like to participate, and don't miss the fun of...

- * cashiering
- * helping students find the perfect book
- * or giving a helping hand in the set up /or/ take down

We appreciate your support in whatever form it takes!
