Helping Kids Thrive (and Survive) in Their Digital World

Are your kids asking for cellphones or the next device? Are they always on the device they just got? Do they download apps you don't recognize?

- Gain suggestions on key media issues to discuss with your child.
- Learn how to use technology to bring your family together.
- Gain insight on choosing quality apps and navigating friendships in the age of texting.
- Learn how to help your child manage his/her digital footprint and maintain privacy and knowing when to unplug.
